

ORDINANCE RECORD

No. 728  K-B PRINTING Co.  OMAHA

CITY HALL LEXINGTON, NEBRASKA

The Mayor and Council of the City of Lexington, Dawson County, Nebraska, met in regular special session in the City Hall at 8:00 o'clock P. M., on March 2, 1937. Mayor Kjar presided and City Clerk Olsson recorded the proceedings of this meeting.

The Mayor instructed the Clerk to call the roll. The Clerk called the roll and the following Councilmen were present: Gillan, Morganson, Hagadone, Spies, Barrett, Evans.

Absent: none.

Whereupon the Mayor announced that the introduction of ordinances was now in order, and the matter now coming before the Mayor and Council was the passage and approval of Ordinance No. 324 of the City of Lexington, Nebraska.

This ordinance was introduced by Councilman Evans and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

ORDINANCE NO. 324.

An ordinance to regulate the use and operation of junk yards in the City of Lexington, and to declare the keeping and operation thereof to be a nuisance, except upon compliance with the provisions of this ordinance, and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of Lexington, Nebraska:

Section 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep, use, maintain or operate within the corporate limits of the City of Lexington, Nebraska, any junk yard or place for the purchase, handling or storage of old iron, hides, metals or other second hand unassembled articles, unless the same are placed within a building, or enclosed within a fence, or other enclosure, of such height and kind as to effectively shield the same from view, both from adjoining streets and adjoining property.

Section 2. Any such junk yard or other place used for the purpose as herein set forth, without the same being enclosed as provided in Section One hereof, is hereby declared to be a nuisance and shall be abated as such.

Section 3. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum, not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00, and shall be confined to jail until such fine and costs are fully paid. Each day in which such place shall be operated without strict compliance with the provisions of this ordinance shall be considered a separate offense.

Passed and approved this 2nd day of March, 1937.

Attest:

Albert A. Kjar.
Mayor.

J. L. Olsson
City Clerk.
